

CHOLERA IS THERE.

St. Petersburg Possesses the Dreaded Plague.

A POLICY OF SUPPRESSION OF FACTS ADOPTED BY OFFICIALS.

But They Are Also Making Use of All Available Precautions Against the Spread of the Disease—Spurgeon's Son Will Be His Successor—German War-houses in Dahomey Closed.

St. Petersburg, March 20.—Cholera has made its appearance again in this city and it is known that fatal cases are of daily occurrence, although the authorities have not resumed their policy of last year of making regular daily announcements of the new cases and deaths. At present the authorities are pursuing a policy of suppression and withholding from the public the condition of things. The Ministry of the Interior is taking action upon the matter. The Ministry has ordered the reopening of the medical-sanitary stations in the Volga provinces, where the cholera carried off many thousands last year, and special cruises with sanitary staffs will cruise in the river, stopping along the Volga to pick up any cholera patient or any dead from cholera-stricken vessels plying on that stream. The Government is also causing to be formed sanitary commissions which will look after the health of the people at the points to be reached through the railway system of Russia.

EVICTED TENANTS' BILL. LONDON, March 20.—A discussion took place today in the House of Commons on the subject of the evicted tenants' bill, which embodies in substance the recommendations of the Evicted Tenants' Commission. The bill provides that a land commissioner shall be appointed to settle disputes and when arbitration fails the commissioner shall determine reasonable terms on which the tenant may purchase the holding and liquidate the arrangements of rent.

Other clauses provide for assistance to the tenant in stocking his home when he has a substantial interest therein and for the meeting of other contingencies regarding the property.

Patrick A. M. Hugh, Nationalist Member of Parliament for North Leitrim, moved the second reading of the bill and supplemented the motion with an address setting forth the hardships which called for its enactment.

Thomas Lee, Liberal Unionist Member of Parliament for South Londonderry, moved that the bill be rejected on the ground that although expeditious it was unjust in its terms.

John Morley, Chief Secretary for Ireland, admitted that there was objection to some clauses of the bill, but added that the Government accepted the second reading and would assist the bill in the remaining stages after the home rule bill had been read a second time.

T. Sexton, Member of Parliament for North Kerry, expressed the opinion that the objections alluded to by Chief Secretary Morley could be disposed of when the bill would be under consideration in committee.

G. J. Macneil, Unionist, said that he regarded the bill as a no-rent manifesto and declared that if passed it would be a death blow to the landlords. The debate was then adjourned.

SPURGEON'S SON HIS SUCCESSOR. LONDON, March 20.—A special meeting has been held at the Tabernacle Church to take steps toward deciding upon a permanent pastor. The principal candidates have been the Rev. Arthur Piers of Philadelphia, the Rev. James Spurgeon, brother of the late Charles Spurgeon, and the Rev. Thomas Spurgeon, son of the late Charles Spurgeon. The resignation of the Rev. James Spurgeon from his temporary pastorate was accepted and the meeting passed by a majority of 200 a resolution that the Rev. Thomas Spurgeon be invited to officiate in the pulpit for one year with a view toward becoming a permanent pastor of the congregation. The Rev. Thomas Spurgeon will begin his duties in June.

THE TEHUANTEPEC Isthmus ROAD. CITY OF MEXICO, Mexico, March 20.—Advices received here today state that owing to the severe conditions of the weather a serious delay will be caused in the completion of the Tehuantepec Isthmus Railroad.

It had been expected that the contractors would have the line finished by April 1, but the terms of the contract they had made have received a bonus of $50,000 from the government. According to the advices received today there are still three miles of the road to be constructed and it will not be possible to complete the work before some time in August or September.

CLOSED GERMAN WAREHOUSES. PARIS, March 20.—Le Politique p. Coloniale published a series of decrees issued by Gen. Dodds, commander of the French forces in Dahomey. These decrees order the closing of a warehouse at Wadab, the Dahomeyan port, belonging to the firm of Volber and Brohm of Hamburg, Germany, on the ground that Volber and Brohm had been selling arms and ammunition to ex-King Behanzon of Dahomey to enable him to carry on a war against the French.

The decrees also order the expulsion from Dahomey of four Germans named Ritt, Richter, Russ and Barth for furnishing 60 repeating rifles and cartridges to Behanzon. The charges that German traders were supplying the hostile Dahomeyans with arms and ammunition to fight the French has been frequently and openly made, and it appears from these decrees that Gen. Dodds obtained positive proofs to that effect.

Robbed a Druggist. J. A. W. Fernow, a druggist at Market and Broadway, reported to the police some days ago that goods had been missing from his store from time to time until $500 worth were gone. He suspected a colored porter named Charles Chester, who had been in his employ since last October until about three weeks ago.

Descriptive of what was put upon the case and traced Chester to Litchfield, Ill., where he was arrested and brought back to St. Louis today. $400 worth of goods sold by Chester in Litchfield were recovered and brought back to St. Louis and identified by Mr. Fernow.

Brown Murder Preliminary Postponed. The preliminary hearing of Henry Kaiser, Jacob Helms and Charles McDonald, charged with the killing of Edwin E. Brown of 319 Morgan street, at Garrison and Franklin avenue on the night of March 2, was called in the Court of Criminal Correction this morning but was continued until April 4, for the State.

Found the Boy's Body. ZANEVILLE, O., March 20.—The body of 15-year old Frank Irvine, who disappeared March 2, was found floating in the river near his home today. Post play is suspected.

University Bill Signed. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 20.—The Governor today signed the bill appropriating $250,000 for the erection of a new building for the state University. Only $100,000 of the amount is available this year, the balance to be drawn from the Treasury next year.

GOING TO FOURTH STREET.

The Lammert Furniture Co. Lease Part of the Collier Building.

The northeast corner of Fourth and St. Charles streets was leased this morning for a term of ten years at an annual rental of $31,500 or a total rental for the entire term of $315,000.

The lease was made for the Collier estate, who own the entire block, by the Hammett-Anderson-Wade Real Estate Co., The Lammert Furniture Co. are the lessees and have agreed to lease the property in order to locate on Fourth street again.

The portion of the property they have secured has a depth of 90 feet on the north line of St. Charles. The remaining 60 feet on Fourth street, extending to Washington street, is occupied by the Trichter, Dunker & Renard Carpet Co. All the buildings now on the property are to be wrecked at once and a new seven-story brick building erected in their stead.

Peabody, Sterns & Furber, the architects engaged, have prepared plans for the new building which is said to be very handsome in design and very massive in appearance. The cost of the new building will be over half a million dollars.

This handsome new improvement is in keeping with the recent advancement of Fourth street, and the fact that merchants who some years ago had their headquarters on Fourth street are endeavoring to locate there again is an evidence that Fourth street will hereafter be established on a firm basis, as one of the leading business streets of the city.

The removal of the Lammert Furniture Co. to Fourth street will practically concentrate the retail furniture trade of the city on that thoroughfare. With two or three exceptions the leading retail houses in that line outside of time payment stores will be located on Fourth street.

The removal of the Lammert Furniture Co. to Fourth street will bring another tenant in the store now occupied by them at Broadway and Fourth street. A large concern is now negotiating for the building with the Lammert company, whose lease still has a few years to run.

On street in the city has so much been done in the building line as on Fourth street. The new Planetary House, the Collier Building, the Klato, Security and Laclede buildings are among the improvements.

The advance sale of seats for the engagement of Mr. Francis Wilson and his own comic opera company opens this morning. Mr. Wilson, who has not been seen in St. Louis for five years, and not at all as a producer and manager on his own account, will appear at the Grand Opera House next Monday night in his new play, "The Lion Tamer." The opera comes here direct from Chicago, where it has enjoyed a phenomenally successful run of four weeks. The St. Louis engagement is for one week only and will include but one matinee, that of Saturday.

At the Olympic "The New South" is proving one of the greatest hits of the year. On Sunday evening "The Old Homestead" will pay the second visit of the season to St. Louis. The play will be presented by the same company that proved so popular when here before.

Annie Ward Tiffany, in "Lady Blarney," is playing to large audiences at the Grand. On Sunday next John T. Kelly, the popular Irish comedian, will appear in his new play, "McFee of Dublin." HOLY THURSDAY.

Catholics, generally, observed the custom of visiting the churches.

To-day is Holy Thursday and in all the Catholic Churches a special and impressive ritual was observed. High mass began in most of the churches at 9 a. m., and progressed in the usual manner as far as the "Gloria in Excelsis," at the conclusion of which the organ was hushed, the church bell stilled, not to sound again until the time for the "Gloria" arrives again in the services of Saturday morning.

The mass in the churches to-day, the officiating priest carried the sacrament from the main altar to the side altar, dedicated to the Blessed Virgin, which had been adorned with flowers, plants, candles and lamps. The beauty and attractiveness of these repositories varied in the several churches according to the taste and resources of the ladies of the parish. All day long large bodies of the faithful have been making pilgrimages to the churches. In each one they spent a few minutes and compared the decorations of the repositories with those which they had seen in the churches of the parish. The pleasant weather which prevailed had the effect of bringing out large numbers of pilgrims, who went from shrine to shrine. In St. John's pro-cathedral, sixteenth and Chestnut streets, Rt. Rev. J. H. Hendon, Bishop of Wichita, Kan., celebrated solemn high mass at 8 o'clock this morning, and the monks from St. Anthony's Church, dedicated to the Blessed Virgin, which had been adorned with flowers, plants, candles and lamps. THE TRUTH OF IT.

Is There Any Limit to Human Endurance?

A Revelation Which Will Astonish Most People.

And Yet It Is in Reality of Every Day Occurrence.

The following communication is from one of our correspondents, Mrs. Carrie E. Martin, a lady well known and highly respected and who occupies a position of the highest social distinction in West Lafayette, Mass. Her experience is of such a nature and its importance to many is so great and far-reaching, that we give it to our readers in her own words.

"Last summer I was all run down, had chills, no appetite, very little sleep nights and soon days, faint spells, trembling feelings and was so weak I could hardly walk around the room. I continued to run down in health and strength until I feared utter nervous prostration with its untold miseries."

"I sent for my town physician and he came a good many times. I soon had to give up work entirely, still his medicines did me no good. I tried to ride out one morning, but went only a few rods and had to come home. My husband then went to church, leaving me with the hired help and my children. Such a terrible day as I spent tongue cannot describe. I could scarcely get from the couch to a chair."

"When my husband came in from church I told him I was worse and that I would die if I did not get help soon, that I would not take any more of the doctor's medicine, but try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, if he thought best."

"He advised me to try it and went immediately and got a bottle, which I began to take; up to this time we knew nothing of its value except as we had seen it advertised."

COOL AND WICKED.

Dr. Buchanan Fooled the Physicians Who Attended His Wife.

SHE HAD BEEN POISONED AND THEY DID NOT KNOW IT.

Careful Preparation and Skillful Work in an Attempt to Conceal a Great Crime—Buchanan's Opinion of Harris as a User of Poisons—Testimony at the Trial.

New York, March 30.—Among the important witnesses in the Buchanan wife poisoning case are Capt. William S. Doria and Richard W. McComber, both old cronies of Buchanan. They are witnesses for the people. Capt. Doria, who has just come from Chicago to be present at the trial, is said to be an ex-army officer in Her Majesty's service. He is now in the employ of publishing house in Chicago. Mr. McComber was the second witness put on the stand yesterday. He testified that the doctor, in speaking of the Harris case, had said that Harris was a fool not to know how to poison his wife and leave no trace behind. Macomber was asked if Doria had not expressed great animosity against the doctor and in reply said that Buchanan had tricked Doria into marrying a woman who, it was subsequently discovered, had been the victim of a poisoning. Buchanan, he said, a few days after the death of the doctor's wife, the prisoner had remarked that he "could give the old woman out of the way."

One of the experts to be called by the defense is Dr. Arthur J. Wolf of Hartford, who was called in when young Alfred Stille Ives was found in a state of collapse in the Heublein Hotel in that city. Ives was brought out of his deep stupor by Dr. Wolf's prompt efforts. It is said that when Ives made up his mind to kill himself he also decided that by his death he would benefit the vexatious science of toxicology. He swallowed twelve grains of morphine and ninety-six grains of chloral at different intervals according to the story, and between times recorded his sensations. The memoranda are now said to be in the possession of Dr. Wolf, and will be used in Dr. Buchanan's defense. Dr. Wolf has been in the court room since the case first opened. He will attend to the pathological part of the testimony. William O'Sullivan, doctor and lawyer, called by the defense, testified that he was called by Dr. Nicol. They are Prof. Witthaus, Prof. Doremus, Dr. Loomis and Dr. Prudden. Apart from Dr. Wolf, the defense has Dr. Walter T. Scheele as a chemical expert.

In opening the case Lawyer Shannon gave the prisoner's history and summed up the points the state would have to prove in support of the indictment. He said the defendant at the bar had been indicted for the crime of poisoning the life of his wife, on or about April 22, 1892, a fatal dose of morphine poison, from which she died.

Robert W. Buchanan began his life in Halifax, N. S. He spent several years of his life in drug store, where he learned the art of compounding drugs and medicines. From that he easily passed into the practice of medicine. He graduated at the College of Physicians and Surgeons. This was about 1888. He stayed in New York for a while, then married his first wife, Miss Annie Brice Patterson, a young woman whose parents were respectable and prominent people.

In 1888 he continued his studies in Edinburgh, and he took his wife with him. There he remained about a year and returned to America in 1889. He settled here in New York, where he began the practice of medicine. He was not like most young practitioners here, but with the greatest difficulty. He was poor.

He hadn't been in New York long when he obtained a divorce from his first wife. That was about 1890. About a year after the divorce he became acquainted with Mrs. Anna B. Buchanan, who lived on No. 371 Halsey street, Newark. She was fifteen years older than the defendant, and by economy and industry she had accumulated a considerable fortune. The defendant began to pay attention to her. He flattered his friends that this old woman had fallen in love with him. Before his marriage to her, Nov. 25, 1892, he induced her to make a will in his behalf. It left him all her property.

That will was drawn by a friend of Buchanan in Newark. He took two other friends over to Newark to witness the will. Two days later he married the woman.

The couple came to New York and set up housekeeping at 267 West 10th street. The house was rented. But the same furniture used in fitting up the house in New York.

THREATS AGAINST HIS WIFE. The defendant had been married but a short time to this woman when his friends began to hear rumors of his wife's infidelity. His friends in New York Dr. Buchanan said that he was not married; that the woman was his housekeeper. To his own person, as far as we have been able to discover, did he confess his marriage.

After a time the rumors began to hear of disagreements between him and his "housekeeper." He said early in the middle of the year 1891, to one witness, whom we shall produce, "I am getting tired of that old woman. I wish I had never had anything to do with her at all." Again, towards the latter part of 1891, he was heard to say, "That old housekeeper of mine will drive me crazy. I am going to dump her. I am going to get rid of her. I am getting tired of her. I wish I had never had anything to do with her at all." Again, towards the latter part of 1891, he was heard to say, "That old housekeeper of mine will drive me crazy. I am going to dump her. I am going to get rid of her. I am getting tired of her. I wish I had never had anything to do with her at all."

PREPARING TO COVER HIS CRIME. In order to prepare the way for certain other results which might follow, the defendant was seen to one of his friends, "That old woman has been poisoning me. I wish I had never had anything to do with her at all." Again, towards the latter part of 1891, he was heard to say, "That old housekeeper of mine will drive me crazy. I am going to dump her. I am going to get rid of her. I am getting tired of her. I wish I had never had anything to do with her at all."

He saw to it that his mother, who had been living with him, was put in a safe place. He sent his child by his first wife away. He was putting his house in order so he might carry out his fell purpose.

So one Friday morning a year ago next month Dr. Buchanan's wife was taken sick.

A doctor was sent for. She was found to be in a highly nervous state, and she kept in that condition until 3 o'clock, when she was seen by Dr. McIntyre, who prescribed for her a mixture of castor oil and calomel. She was a nervous, thin, pale woman, with eight grains of bromide of sodium, a teaspoonful of which was to be taken every two hours, and he prescribed a 2-ounce bottle, so that an ordinary person could have taken the whole bottle without danger.

Dr. McIntyre, a reputable family physician of many years' standing, saw the patient in this excited, hyper-nervous state at 3 o'clock. At 8 o'clock, Mrs. Childs, a nurse who had been called in, and Mrs. Strassburg, wife of a dentist who was going to take the house from the Buchanans, happened to enter the sick woman's chamber, and they saw Dr. Buchanan giving his wife a dose of something with a spoon. And he attempted to follow it up with another after the first had been swallowed.

The impression made upon the mind of the nurse at that time was that the medicine which had been taken by Mrs. Buchanan was bitter, whereas the medicine prescribed by Dr. McIntyre at that time was not bitter, but slightly sweet. Immediately after taking that medicine given by the defendant—in about ten or fifteen minutes—the woman sank into a profound sleep. From sleep she went into stupor, and she was taken into a profound coma, from which she never awoke.

Dr. McIntyre's first wife. Twenty-five days after he buried his second wife in Greenwood Cemetery he re-married. The first wife died of a cerebral hemorrhage. He said in answer to the usual questions that he was a bachelor. He comes back to New York and takes a room at the Hotel Hamilton at One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street and Eleventh avenue.

After consulting with Herbert W. Knight, his Newark lawyer, Buchanan wasn't satisfied. He was told to go to New York and see Charles E. Davidson, now one of his lawyers. While going back to Newark a friend said to him: "Doctor, you are in no danger. The physician who examined her said she died of cerebral hemorrhage." "But you know that symptoms vary and doctors frequently make mistakes," he answered.

"Don't you know that drugs can be so compounded as to destroy the effect of morphine on the respiratory system?" "Don't you know that if you take belladonna its effect is to dilate the pupil of the eye and make it look normal?" "But you know that if they dig that woman up they will find her full of morphine." "I don't know," he said. "I don't know."

AN ORGANIZED ATTACK. Ignatius Donnelly Wants to Combine the States Against Coal Combines.

St. Paul, Minn., March 30.—Senator Ignatius Donnelly yesterday afternoon introduced a joint resolution into the Minnesota Legislature showing the determination to carry the crusade against the coal combine into every State in the Union in which coal is mined. The resolution asks the Governor to correspond with the governors of all other States, asking each to appoint commissioners to meet on the first Monday of April next at St. Paul, Minn., to take action against the members of the combines in each State. The Governor is asked to appoint five commissioners to represent Minnesota.

A COAL AGENTS' CONVENTION. New York, March 30.—Both the Eastern and Western coal sales agents held meetings here to-day. The chief topic under consideration by the Eastern salesmen was the price of coal, and it was decided to make no change at present. The Western sales agents discussed the subject of the allotment for the month of April, and after considering a proposition to make it 3,000,000 tons, they adjourned without taking any definite action on the matter.

More Warrants for Burglar King. Two more warrants, charging burglary, were sworn out to-day against Robert King, the negro who was shot by D. C. Ball of 1601 South Grand avenue on March 15, while he was trying to break into Ball's house. The warrants to-day are taken out by the Badger of 1601 Union avenue and Wm. White of 1168 Union avenue, both of whose houses were robbed Jan. 27, by the same burglar.

White charges him with stealing an overcoat, a knife and $5.50. Ball swore out a warrant against King when he was arrested, which was a day or two after the negro was shot. King was shot in the leg, and was in the hospital for some time, and recovered and is now in jail. The police have considerable other property which they think may be traced to King. Detectives Gallagher and Roach are working on the case.

He was highly pleased with the work of the department while he was gone, and complimented Assistant Chief of Police Reed, who had charge, and Chief of Detectives Desmond on his absence.

BROKE HER TAIL SHAFT.

The Steamer Strassburg Arrives After a Tiresome Delay.

New York, March 30.—Not far from Sandy Hook the North German Lloyd steamer Strassburg spent last night. She would have come to her pier yesterday, but circumstances were against her. She broke her tail shaft about Saturday evening when about 200 miles from the American coast. The accident happened at 2 a. m. The break was somewhere within twenty feet of the stern. The shaft was inclosed in a casement and the exact location of the break could not be found. A serious accident was prevented by stepping the engine, for if the engineers had not acted promptly the shaft might have torn a hole through the hull and the vessel would have been in the same danger which threatened the Sprer several months ago, when she nearly went to the bottom. The captain of the Strassburg ordered rockets to be sent up. The American line steamer Chester answered the signals of distress and consented to take the Strassburg in tow. The Chester towed the German steamer as far as the Sandy Hook lightship, which was reached yesterday afternoon, and there left her. Word was sent to the agents of the line in this city and four tugs were sent down to the assistance of the Strassburg. Last evening the Strassburg was towed to port below Quarantine, where she remained all night. A quantity of fresh meat was sent down to the disabled steamer and under the benign influences of the juicy steaks and mutton chops the passengers recovered their good humor and spent the night on the steamer without a murmur. The Strassburg was towed to her pier this morning.

CRUSHED BY ICEBERGS. MONTVIDEO, Uruguay, March 30.—The German steamer Tanis has arrived at Montevideo from the Falkland Islands late in the afternoon. The ship was in the company of the British ship Templemore.

The Templemore was crushed between two icebergs north of the Falkland Islands on March 3. The captain, his wife and the crew got off in small boats, but the vessel was lost. They had been about five days and were nearly dead from hunger and exposure when they were picked up by the Danubian and taken to the Falkland Islands. The captain, his wife and a portion of the crew will proceed to Europe on the Tanis. The Brazilian war ships, which will take part in the naval review, sailed on Tuesday for New York.

WORD FROM THE NAROWIC. NORFOLK, Va., March 30.—William Johnson, a watchman at Ocean View, a summer resort opposite the Chesapeake Bay, caught a floating champagne bottle containing a note which reads as follows:

"S. I. O. M., Feb. 19, S. S. Narowic, White Star Line, at sea. Who picks this up? Report when you find it to our agents, if not heard of before. 'Ah,' he answered, 'but you know that symptoms vary and doctors frequently make mistakes.'"

"Yes, but, Doctor, you stated that this woman's eyes—the pupils of the eyes—were dilated, which is inconsistent with the theory that she died of cerebral hemorrhage." "Don't you know that drugs can be so compounded as to destroy the effect of morphine on the respiratory system?" "Don't you know that if you take belladonna its effect is to dilate the pupil of the eye and make it look normal?" "But you know that if they dig that woman up they will find her full of morphine." "I don't know," he said. "I don't know."

Cut by an Unknown. Emma Salmer, a servant girl living at 4249 West Bell street, applied for a warrant against Emmett Gregg of 3987 Evans avenue, the son of a family with whom the young woman formerly lived. She said that while living with young Gregg's parents she was paid him for watch for $5, which he claimed he did. Later she gave him the $5 to redeem the watch, and since that he sold the watch. The young man, she says, does not stay at home all the time, but she told to find out where he is staying now and to come back again.

First sale of No. 2 red wheat for export to the Continent that has taken place for many weeks was concluded yesterday. One hundred and forty thousand bushels were sold, the purchaser being H. C. Harsticht, President of the Continental Grain Co. This is regarded as a very encouraging symptom. While England is a steady buyer of St. Louis wheat, it is only on occasions that the Continent is a customer. There have been reports of damage to crops in France and the sale of wheat for shipment to Europe is regarded as an indication that these rumors are true. Should the latter be true, it would found a heavy demand will be certain to ensue.

WARRANTS FOR THE TRAIN ROBBERIES. The warrants to-day are taken out by the Badger of 1601 Union avenue and Wm. White of 1168 Union avenue, both of whose houses were robbed Jan. 27, by the same burglar.

White charges him with stealing an overcoat, a knife and $5.50. Ball swore out a warrant against King when he was arrested, which was a day or two after the negro was shot. King was shot in the leg, and was in the hospital for some time, and recovered and is now in jail. The police have considerable other property which they think may be traced to King. Detectives Gallagher and Roach are working on the case.

Excelsior Springs (Mo.) Waters. David Nicholson is wholesale agent for the famous Excelsior Springs (Mo.) waters, and the agency at 15 South Fourth street discontinued.

Chief Harrigan Returns. Chief Harrigan returned this morning from Hot Springs, where he has been the last few weeks recuperating. He is looking well. He called at the Four Courts on his way from the depot to his residence. He then proceeded home, where he was met by his wife to take a bath and shake the dust of travel off of him when he returned to the Four Courts and took charge of his office. He was highly pleased with the work of the department while he was gone, and complimented Assistant Chief of Police Reed, who had charge, and Chief of Detectives Desmond on his absence.

Hogs—Receipts, 3,699 head. The early market was 10c to 20c lower on the best grades and impossible to estimate how much decline there was on common and inferior, it was said to range all the way from 25c to 50c off. The quality of to-day's receipts was average, with no good packing or butcher grades to be had. Speculators and shippers were about the only buyers and even they were very indifferent, making it difficult to sell even at the decline.

CHICAGO, Ill., March 31.—Wheat largely took the place of soy today in the wheat list. May wheat was weak and July strong. The feeling was that the May decline might be over in July before anyone knew about it. Crop news was bad. Everybody was rattled as to the May option after yesterday's supplies. There was plenty of buyers of hard wheat willing to go to the limit for medium to good, but there was nothing but odd lots and no sale for sale. The light transactions to-day are not enough to represent the market.

phenomenal fluctuations and theories as to the status of the deal were numerous and varied. The consensus of opinion was that the reaction was still in control. There was quite a general impression that the sales on the week's rally have been possibly 5,000,000 bu. Indications seemed to be that they were now inclined to peg the price again. The clique brokers bought some July 10-day. The Signal Service msp. showed

The Price Current summary was regarded as rather bullish. May opened a little lower at 75½c, rallied to 79c, declined to 78½c and recovered to 78¾c.
